Pro Forma Ratios of Earnings from Continuing Operations to Fixed Charges and Combined Fixed Charges and Preferred Stock Dividends:	Assuming that the issuance of the notes and the application of a portion of the estimated net proceeds therefrom to repay $714 million of borrowings outstanding under the Company’s $1.0 billion acquisition credit facility had occurred as of January 1, 2012, the Company’s pro forma consolidated ratios of earnings from continuing operations to fixed charges would have been 1.5x and 1.8x and the Company’s consolidated pro forma ratios of earnings from continuing operations to combined fixed charges and preferred stock dividends would have been 1.3x and 1.4x for the three months ended March 31, 2013 and the year ended December 31, 2012, respectively. For information on how these ratios are calculated and definitions of “earnings from continuing operations” and “fixed charges,” see “Ratios of Earnings from Continuing Operations to Fixed Charges and Combined Fixed Charges and Preferred Stock Dividends” in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement. The foregoing pro forma ratios reflect various estimates and assumptions and are subject to other uncertainties and therefore do not purport to reflect what the Company’s actual ratios would have been had the issuance of the notes and the application of a portion of the estimated net proceeds therefrom as aforesaid occurred as of January 1, 2012 nor do they purport to reflect such ratios for any future period. In addition, such ratios do not give pro forma effect to any other debt that the Company incurred or repaid, or to any acquisitions or dispositions of assets or businesses that the Company made (including the acquisition of American Realty Capital Trust, Inc. that the Company completed on January 22, 2013 as described in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement under “Prospectus Supplement Summary—Recent Developments—Recent Acquisitions”), during the applicable periods, nor do such ratios give effect to the application of the remainder of the net proceeds from the issuance of the notes. The foregoing information supersedes and replaces the information set forth in footnote (1) to the table appearing under the caption “Ratios of Earnings from Continuing Operations to Fixed Charges and Combined Fixed Charges and Preferred Stock Dividends” in the Preliminary Prospectus Supplement.
